List of publication

- 2017 Book author. Sundjaya and Andri Santosa. Hutan Kemasyarakatan di Lombok. Bogor: Konsorsium GAIA and FKKM. Supported by MCA-Indonesia.
- 2014 Book editor. Meneke': Budaya Bahari di Kepulauan Sangihe, Sulawesi Utara. Authors: Alex Ulaen, et.al. Jakarta: Kementerian Pendidikan dan Kebudayaan RI.
- The book describes about a traditional practice in fish catching that recently eroded under new technology of fishery among local community in small islands area. My note in introduction chapter telling about maritime culture in Indonesia which should be included on enhancement of coastal communities who historically linked to intercultural and transoceanic trade with peoples from other countries, especially Chinese.
- 2013 Book editor. Sasi di Indonesia Timur. Verifikasi nilai budaya bahari di Kepulauan Aru, Banggai Kepulauan, dan Raja Ampat. Authors: Haliadi-Sadi, Syakir Mahmud, and Wilman D. Lumangino. Jakarta: Kementerian Pendidikan dan Kebudayaan RI.
- The book describe traditional forms of coastal resources use. It discover variety of cultural institutions in easter part of Indonesia alike to sasi in Maluku. My notes in Introduction chapter tells in general about the sasi or other customary institution managing the commons in social economy transformation and change of cultural values in Indonesia.
- 2013 Mochamad Indrawan; Celia Lowe; Sundjaya; Christo Hutabarat; Aubrey Black. "Co-management and the creation of national parks in Indonesia: positive lessons learned from the Togeian Islands National Park". Journal of Environmental Planning and Management.
- This article considers the role of social relations, and friendship as well, among actors that will finally enable the collaboration in management of national marine park. Me and other writers are individuals who has experience of research and working in Togeian Islands extensively, such as Prof. Dr. Celia Lowe, an ethnographer from Univeristy of Washington, USA.
- 2013 Contributor writer . Tersesat di Jalan Benar: 1000 hari mengelola Leuser. Writer: Wiratno. Publisher: UNESCO.
- The book documents the writer's experience when he was the Head of Leuser National park in Sumatera. My short article in this book tells about 'delusion' of collaboration in resources management. I review the establishment co-management in national park which identifying community and other stakeholders as a solid, monolithic, and homogenous entity. I consider co-management as an arena of where the various actors negotiate to exchange their own values and interests on resources.
- 2012 Book chapter. "Introduction to nature resource management in rural area". Training Modul for facilitator of for the Green PNPM in Indonesia. Publisher: DANIDA and PSF-Worldbank.
- It provide concept and method in understanding and identification the social economy factors relating to management of nature resources in rural community.
- 2008 Author. Dinamika Kebudayaan. Jakarta: Nobel Edumedia.
- This is additional reference for Senior High School curricula in Jakarta. It is about how to view cultural dynamic embedded in social changes process.
- 2005 Book chapter. "Mangrove Conservation through Ecotourism Development by the Bobongko people in Togeian Islands, Indonesia". Innovative Communities: People Centered Approaches to Environmental Management in the Asia-Pasific Region, edited by Jerry Velasques, Makiko Yashiro, Susan Yoshimura and Izumi Ono. Publisher: United Nation University Press, 2005.
- It tells about responses of Bobongko community, a local ethnic in Togeian Islands, to ecotourism development introduced by NGO and tourism business. I argue about the institutional arrangement that contribute to the failures and successful of ecotourism in this community.
- 2004 Sundjaya and Nina Dwisasanti. "Mengembangkan Konservasi Sumberdaya Laut dan Pesisir oleh Masyarakat di Kepulauan Togeian, Sulawesi Tengah". Paper presented in National Seminar on Marine and Coastal Biodiversity, Pusat Penelitian Oseanografi, Indonesia Science Institute (LIPI), in Jakarta. August 30-September, 1, 2004.

- This is a seminar paper talking about lesson learned I have during my involvement in establishment of coral reefs protection area with local people (the Bajau ethnic).
