

Lars Sankar-Øyan

lars@tofnorway.no • Telnes Øvre, Eidsveien 815, 2540 Tolga • 41613813

Education

NMBU (Norwegian University of Life Sciences)

Spring 2020 – Project management

Spring 2017 – Agro-ecology

International development studies

August 2016 - Master (ongoing)

"The program encourages understanding of the connections between human and environmental development, and questions standard approaches to development that avoid the political and economic connections between north and south."

Thesis: The research aim is to assess the viability of (re)introducing dairy goats to Dominica as a measure to strengthen food security and climate resilience on a small tropical island.

NTNU (Norwegian university of technology and science) and UIO (University of Oslo)

Faculty of humanities

August 1991 - June 1996

Political science, sociology, social anthropology and comparative religion.

Work-experience

Tolga kommune (Municipality administration of Tolga)

Managing the department of settlement and inclusion (refugee-services), November 2019 -

Coordinator in the department of settlement and inclusion (refugee-services), September 2016
- November 2019

NØVGS (Nord Østerdal - High school)

History teacher, October 2012 - June 2013

Urfe AS

Advisor/project manager, August 2011 – June 2015

Did information and media related tasks for Urfe AS. Was also involved in both the application process and the management of an organic livestock project supported by the State Agricultural Administration (Statens landbruksforvaltning).

Røroskua SA.

Founder and manager, January 2009 – December 2015

Established a mini-cooperative with two other farmers (Røroskua SA). The cooperatives aim was to market and sell meat products from the local old cattle breed, rørosfe. Was instrumental in the development of the company and served as its general manager.

Telnes Øvre Farm

Farmer, January 2002 –

Striving towards farming according to sound agro-ecologic principles. Has over the last 15 years, implemented several farm related projects. Keywords: Transhumance (seterdrift), mountain grass-fed and locally adapted dairy breeds (cows and goats), cheese making, agro-tourism as well as rehabilitation (and transformation) of historic buildings.

Ymir Ltd.

Manager, March 1997 – January 2002

Established and operated a tour operator company based in Trinidad and Tobago. Custom-made culture and nature holidays to the Caribbean.

Personals interests

Local and global history, linguistics and the most popular sport in the world – cricket!